

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Congressman Steve King (R-IA) today offered thanks to past and present members of the United States of America's Armed Forces for their service to our country. King's remarks are offered as Americans enter the Memorial Day Weekend, a holiday dedicated to honoring the men and women who gave their lives in service to the nation.

“I offer my deepest gratitude and sincerest thanks to those who have worn, and those who wear, the nation's uniform,” said King. “The men and women honored on Memorial Day are the cherished guardians of the United States Constitution and of the liberties Americans enjoy.

□

□

As America prepares to commemorate Memorial Day, I encourage everyone to take a moment to reflect on the sacrifices that our nation's veterans have made. I also hope that Iowans will join with me in expressing appreciation for the sacrifices made by those currently serving and for those made by their families."

**#